"This prestigious evening, called Medicine for the Soul, honoured eight Canadian Home Builder's Association-Calgary region members who came together to help CHBF build a much needed new dormitory for Easter Seals Camp Horizon, a place where every child can find their own very special friend," says event co-ordinator Brenda Bowie.

"Camp Horizon is truly an extra special one-of-a-kind camp for children living with disabilities and special needs in Alberta. A place that will truly be Medicine for the Soul."

The eight contributing building Heroes were Cruz Custom Homes, Cedarglen Homes, Westview Homes, Douglas Homes, Classic

"They were all given well deserved plaques of recognition for their contribution to CHBF and Camp Horizon," says Bowie.

"Chris Thin, the general manager of Automaxx, is another A1 Granite Hero

"Automaxx representative Dext Sproule presented the van to Camp Horizon's Patti Brewin and their very special ambassador Jacob McGregor, who warmed everyone's hearts with his great humour and wonderful thank you."

A1 Granite is looking for more heroes to come forward in support of disabled children and their caregivers.
